EXPERIENCE IS EVERYTHING

Central Estate Agents was established in 1992 and has become the biggest independent estate agency in Walthamstow and the surrounding areas.

We understand that your home is not just about bricks and mortar and that moving home is one of the biggest investments that you will ever make.

At Central Estate Agents our clients always come first and we believe that hard work and experience has made us the biggest agent in Walthamstow.

Our sales team alone has over 100 years combined experience and work together on a 'team commission' to ensure that we offer the best advice and most thorough service possible to our client.

We employ local people, people that have a vast local knowledge, whether it is transport links, bus routes or even school catchment areas, the most important things that a buyer is looking for when searching for their new home.

With this experience it means that we can match committed buyers to your home much more efficiently, eliminating the frustration of poor quality viewings where the property is clearly not suitable for the prospective purchaser.
